Yes: 5 - Vice Chair Brueggemann, Commissioner Wood, Vice Chair Perry, Commissioner Greenberg, and Commissioner Gasper

Not Present: 1 - Commissioner Morris

PAC 2023-019 Still Wild Sculpture Dedication

Members discussed rescheduling the dedication event originally scheduled for Saturday, April 22 and determined to host the event on Thursday, May 11 or Friday, May 12. Staff would coordinate with participants' schedules to solidify a date and would distribute details and an invitation as soon as possible. Staff also provided the update that the artist planned to return to touch up the sculpture's foundation.

PAC 2023-020 Featuring Art at the Butterfield Park Grand Opening Event and Inaugural Year

Staff Liaison Maia Yates had been approached by Parks and Recreation Department staff to inquire if the Public Art Commission would like to feature a sculpture at the newly relocated art pedestal at Butterfield Crossing Park for the grand reopening event scheduled for Friday, June 9. Members determined to loan the sculpture currently installed at Festival Park as part of Art Encounters, Farmer's Moon II, for an additional year and place Turtle Dove Chimera at Butterfield Park in May. Turtle Dove Chimera was selected by Castle Rock as part of the 2023-2024 Douglas County Art Encounters program. Staff will coordinate with the artists and necessary Town staff to complete loan agreements and installation logistics.

"I move to execute a new art on loan agreement with artist Reven Marie Swanson for the purpose of keeping Farmer's Moon II installed at Festival Park for an additional year in the amount of $1,000."

Yes: 5 - Vice Chair Brueggemann, Commissioner Wood, Vice Chair Perry, Commissioner Greenberg, and Commissioner Gasper

PAC 2023-021 Staff Updates

Staff provided the update that contracts were being completed with artists for Art Encounters and installations would begin throughout May. Staff also reviewed upcoming calendar items for the commission's general reference. Member of the public Caryn Johnson also shared upcoming calendar items for the Downtown Merchant Association events planned for this spring and summer.

PAC 2023-022 Public Art Planning

Chair Jen Perry noted that she had begun interviewing stakeholders who provided visioning on the art plan prior to its creation to gather feedback on the existing draft. Staff liaison Maia Yates indicated that she'd be happy to assist in interviewing stakeholders and offered to reach out to member Julisa Morris to see if she could help as well. Jen then reviewed an excel document that started to lay out the timing of the completion of upcoming priorities and subtasks associated with the goals identified within the plan.

COMMISSION COMMENTS

Samantha Wood and Stephanie Brueggemann both indicated their intent to not reapply for additional terms following their current term limits.
