

Kuno's Biography

Kuno was born in 2005. In late 2007, Kuno graduated from Aurora Police Department's K-9 Academy and was successfully trained in patrol and drug detection.

Kuno continued to assist officers on the street with several apprehensions and the detection of numerous amounts of illegal narcotics. He has presented many public demonstrations for the citizens of Castle Rock and is adored by all the children that have seen him work. Kuno was also cross-designated as a federal narcotic K-9 with the Department of Homeland Security.

In March 2015, at age 10, "Kuno" was taken out of service to enjoy his well-deserved retirement as a house dog.