PAC 2023-024 Staff Updates

Staff provided the following updates to Public Art Commission members:

Tribal Jam

The volunteer activity hosted at Metzler Ranch Community Park to touch up the skate park reliefs was extremely successful. Artist Rik Sargent offered to touch up additional portions of some of the colored reliefs free-of-charge, as well as submit a new proposal to entirely revamp the Tribal Jam sculptures. Staff hope to present Rik's proposal at a future meeting for the commission's consideration.

Groovy Peace Sign

The new sculpture Groovy Peace Sign will be installed at the skate park at Metzler Ranch Community Park on Tuesday, May 16 around 9 a.m. Members are invited to attend the installation if interested.

Board and Commission Recruitment

The panel interviewed ten candidates and made recommendations to be approved by Town Council on Tuesday, May 16. Newly appointed or renewed members would begin terms in June. Chair Jen Perry would like to not only offer orientation meetings, but also suggested potentially hosting some type of team building activity early in the new term period. Samantha Wood offered to provide a tour of Castle Rock and artworks if the group could rent the Town's trolley. It was determined that this opportunity would be fun and members decided to discuss it further and confirm potential dates at their June 2023 meeting.

Still Wild Dedication Event

The dedication event for the sculpture Still Wild would be held Friday, May 12 at 5 p.m. Staff confirmed and reviewed logistics.

PAC 2023-025Public Art Plan Future Execution
