DISCUSSION ITEMS

PAC 2024-035 Strategic Plan Implementation Planning

The commission discussed and determined implementation priorities for the remainder of 2024 through 2025 using the Public Art Strategic Plan as a guiding document. Priorities were set within the following strategic themes:

Beautification: determine the project direction for the Downtown Welcome Art project proposed for the Wolfensberger and Wilcox intersection; initiate a call and implement artwork installation for a vinyl wrap at the Festival Park bathroom; enhance existing art installations throughout Castle Rock by starting with And The Wheels Go Round; continue participation in Douglas County Art Encounters.

Public and Private Funding: create a nonprofit organization for the purposes of fundraising and seeking grant awards; create a list of grant opportunities to prioritize future application efforts; create a grant program application process for increased public art funding should the 2024 sales tax increase for public safety be approved by voters.

Community Engagement: improve the front-end visual presentation of public art through the Town's website or other means as determined; create and implement a successful social media schedule increasing overall posting frequency and public reach; contract a professional photographer to improve the visual representation of public art in media; begin and implement an email newsletter; continue attending Castle Rock Artfest to promote public art initiatives and the Public Art Commission; consider the continuation of the Tiny Art Quest program to engage youth in art and art discovery; consider the continuation of the Holiday Card Art Contest and implement as determined; begin to brainstorm ideas of how art can share community stories and history and initiate relationship with the Castle Rock Museum.

Make Art Part of the Conversation: invite presenters to share at meetings from a variety of individuals or organizations; host some type of roadshow to either help fundraise for future art initiatives and educate the public and organizations on public art programming; continue regional collaboration by sharing Castle Rock's public art initiatives through Leadership Douglas County and Castle Rock's Your Town Academy.

Conservation and Maintenance: continue conservation and maintenance efforts with Pacific Coast Conservation by renewing annual agreements and reviewing annual treatments.
