

Castle Rock Police Department – Officer Biographies:

➤ Officer Joseph Cybert

Joe is a native of Brooklyn Park, Minnesota. He holds a bachelor's degree in quantitative methods in computer science from the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul, MN. Joe has 13 years of law enforcement experience from Houston Police Department, TX and Prince William County Police Department, VA. He has experience as a patrol officer, a forensic investigator and a SWAT Sniper Team Leader.

During Joe's 11-year tenure with Prince William County, he was promoted to sergeant where he held positions in the Patrol and Criminal Investigations Divisions. After three years, he was promoted to first sergeant and was assigned to the Patrol Division. Joe finished his career with Prince William at their academy as the basic training manager.

➤ Officer Erin Davey

Erin started her career in law enforcement in 2008 with the City of Woodland Park Police Department, in Woodland Park, CO. After a few years at Woodland Park, Erin was selected for the Colorado Springs Police Department's Metro Vice, Narcotics and Intelligence (VNI) Task Force. While assigned as a VNI Investigator, Erin led numerous illegal narcotics investigations.

Additionally, Erin's assignments at Woodland Park included detective and, most recently, corporal. Erin Davey and her husband Chad recently welcomed their first child in December. Erin is blessed and excited to become part of the Castle Rock Police Department family.

➤ Officer David Moorhead

David Moorhead began his law enforcement career in 2005 at the Teller County Sheriff's Office. While employed by Teller County, David held various assignments in Detentions and Patrol as a deputy, corporal and as a Sergeant. David performed other functions such as a member of the SWAT Team, an arrest control instructor, firearms instructor, and as an investigator assigned to the Metro Vice, Narcotics and Intelligence (VNI) Task Force.

David obtained his formal education at Adams State University in 2004 with a degree in sociology and psychology with an emphasis of criminal justice and social welfare. David looks forward to a long career serving the Town of Castle Rock as a patrol officer.

➤ Officer Anthony Whyte

Anthony was raised in San Diego, California until joining the United States Army in 2008. Anthony was stationed at Fort Carson, CO with the 1st Squadron, 10th Cavalry Regiment with duties as a cavalry scout.

Shortly thereafter, Anthony was deployed to Iraq followed by a deployment to Afghanistan in 2011. After his proud enlistment had ended, Anthony decided to start a new chapter in his life and decided to pursue higher education and start a family. Anthony earned his associate's degree from Pikes Peak Community College in 2013. He then transferred to the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs (UCCS) and earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice with an emphasis on forensic studies in 2015. Shortly after graduating from UCCS, Anthony was accepted into the Pikes Peak Regional Law Enforcement Academy where he obtained his POST certification in May 2016. Anthony looks forward to a long and successful career with the Castle Rock Police Department.

➤ Officer Paul Smith

Paul was raised in Denver and, after graduating high school, Paul followed his love for cars and sought a degree in automotive technology and began working in the automotive field as a technician then as a service writer.

After years of working on cars, Paul decided he wanted to apply his talents elsewhere and began to pursue a career in law enforcement. Paul sponsored himself through the part-time academy at Arapahoe Community College (ACC) while continuing to work his full-time job. After nine months of hard work and spending time away from his very supportive family, Paul graduated in May and is looking forward to beginning his new career with the Castle Rock Police Department.

➤ Officer Connor Grega

Connor is a native of Saratoga, CA. After graduating high school, Connor moved to Colorado and attended Colorado State University where he graduated with a degree in political science and criminal justice. Upon his graduation, he attended the Arapahoe Community College Law Enforcement Academy and was soon hired by the City of Brighton Police Department, CO. During his time with the Brighton Police Department, Connor worked as a patrol officer, a police training officer, as well as a member of the gang tracking unit.

➤ Officer James Dinges

James was born in Colorado but grew up primarily in Georgia. After middle school, James returned to Colorado and eventually attended the Northeastern Junior College where he started his collegiate baseball career. A year later, James transferred to the Colorado Christian University to continue his baseball career and ultimately graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration/marketing.

After four years of working in the corporate grind, James decided to pursue his dreams of protecting and serving his community. James initially began his law enforcement career as a park ranger for Colorado State Parks and Wildlife. After working for Colorado State Parks and Wildlife, James attended the Arapahoe Community College Law Enforcement Academy and was hired by the City of Lone Tree Police Department (LTPD), CO. James worked for LTPD for four and a half years. During his time there, James worked both patrol and in a specialized assignment at Park Meadows Mall. James also had ancillary assignments such as a standardized field sobriety test instructor and as a firearms instructor.
