A message from Chief of Police Jack Cauley

Castle Rock continues to be one of the safest and fastest-growing communities in the country. To achieve this, we build upon our One-By-One Policing philosophy through our three strategic pillars:

People: We invest in our team members by providing quality training and the best equipment available. We are laser-focused on creating a healthy organizational culture where our members can thrive.

Innovation: The ability to innovate is key. We embrace the latest technology and best practices to solve problems and address crime.

Community: Policing is a team effort. Creating safe communities must involve trust and partnerships. We are grateful for Castle Rock's support and don't take it for granted.

CRPD strengthens community connections through safety and service

Spring has been an active season for the Castle Rock Police Department, with officers showing up for the community in meaningful ways — from welcoming new teammates to supporting crime victims and promoting everyday safety.

The department recently introduced its newest K9 team: Master Police Officer Fuino and K9 Ryker. MPO Fuino has served the Castle Rock community since 2019, with experience in patrol and as a member of the Douglas County Regional SWAT team before transitioning into this specialized role. His partner, Ryker, is a 16-month-old Dutch Shepherd from Germany who arrives dual-certified in narcotics detection and patrol work — a versatile and highly trained addition to the unit.

During National Victims' Rights Week (April 19–25), CRPD partnered with local agencies to collect used cell phones for victims, helping them stay connected to police and critical resources. CRPD also joined the DEA's National Prescription Drug Take Back event on April 25, providing safe medication disposal for residents. Meanwhile, K9 Riddick reminded dog owners that all dogs six months and older must be licensed through DocuPet.
