ZACKARY KENNEDY

Zack Kennedy was raised in Colorado Springs. After graduating high school, Zack received an athletic scholarship to the University of Wyoming to play football and graduated in 2010 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Kinesiology and Health Promotion. In 2015, Zack graduated from the Pikes Peak Regional Law Enforcement Academy. Shortly after graduation, Zack worked as a seasonal Flatwater Patrol Officer for Colorado Parks and Wildlife. In November 2015, Zack accepted a position with Arvada Police Department as a patrol officer where he served prior to being hired by the Castle Rock Police Department.

SAMUEL REGEHR

Sam is originally from Aurora, Colorado where he lived for much of his youth before moving to Valley Center, California. After graduating High School, Sam moved back to Colorado and began working in commercial roofing. Sam honorably served in the United States Marine Corps from 2005 to 2009, during which time he was stationed in Yuma, Arizona and assigned to Aviation Ordnance, working on the Harrier Aircraft. After his discharge from the Marine Corps, Sam attended and graduated from the Pike's Peak Law Enforcement Academy in December 2016, at which time he was recruited by the Castle Rock Police Department. Sam is looking forward to beginning his law enforcement as a Castle Rock Police Officer.

JOHNATHAN MULLINEAUX

John was born in Colorado and grew up on the south end of Colorado Springs with his parents and two brothers. While still in high school, John's passion for law enforcement started when he joined the El Paso County Sheriff's Office Cadet Program. After graduating from high school, John attended Fort Lewis College on a football scholarship. After a few years and a few too many injuries, John decided to hang up his cleats and move back to Colorado Springs and finish his Associates Degree at Pikes Peak Community College. John's first job in the criminal justice field was with the Colorado Department of Corrections working for Cheyenne Mountain Re-Entry Center. While there, John held positions on the Emergency Response Team, Armed Transport Team, and became a Field training Officer. In February of 2015, John began working for the Teller County Sheriff's Office in the Detention Center before being hired today by the Castle Rock Police Department.

MARCOS WHYTE

Marcos was born and raised in San Diego, California. After graduating high school, Marcos enlisted in the United States Army and served as a Military Intelligence Analyst for more than five years, serving in duty station such as Fort Bliss, Texas, and Fort Carson, Colorado. Marcos continues to attend college at the American Military University where he is pursuing a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology. After his discharge from the United States Army, Marcos attended the Pikes Peak Regional Law Enforcement Academy where he was recruited by the Castle Rock Police Department. Marcos still proudly serves as a Reservist in the United States Army Reserve and is the brother of CRPD Officer Anthony Whyte.

DARSEL POLITE

Darsel is from Los Angeles, CA but made Colorado his home in 2014. After graduating high school, Darsel joined the United States Army where he served as a Signals Intelligence Analyst with assignments to the National Security Administration and overseas assignments in Korea and Iraq. After six years on active duty, Darsel discharged from the Army and attended San Diego Mesa College. After spending time in a variety of occupations to include contract musician, oil field operator, and UPS management, Darsel attended and graduated from the South West Regional Law Enforcement Academy in Durango, where he was recruited by the Castle Rock Police Department.
