- The annual updates to the Strategic Plan and Standards of Cover were presented to Council last month.
- The seven new recruits started an academy on Monday. Are the new EMT's and Paramedics, firefighters? Yes, the lateral candidates are all firefighters. The seven that are in the academy now, have no prior fire experience or did not attend an accepted academy.
- Stage 1 fire restrictions were enacted this afternoon. What are the restrictions? No open burning and no personal fireworks. Red flag warning for Friday.
- The department has a Wildland crew deployed to California. The department's US&R member and his dog who were assigned to Texas on a recovery assignment, have returned.

- The department has completed its preliminary 2026 budget review with both Finance and the Town Manager. The budget will be presented to Council in September. Are there any large apparatus purchases for next year? One medic unit and two staff vehicles for new positions. Is the Fouts unit ready? It is still being outfitted and will be ready in about two weeks. This apparatus will be our reserve unit.
- Does South Metro's financial issues have any effect on CRFD? No.
- Is the CAD-to-CAD conversion complete? No, still working through some issues and expect the conversion to be completed in September.
- Chief Croom was asked why the department would need body worn cameras. With nationwide issues, the cameras would protect both patients and crews. Are there cameras in the medic units? No.
