

Tell us what you think about the TABOR surplus We want to hear from you!

The Colorado Constitution's Taxpayers Bill of Rights has a provision that imposes revenue restrictions on the state and local governments, like Castle Rock. When revenues exceed TABOR limits in a year, as they did for Castle Rock in 2015, the Town has two choices: 1) Refund the money to taxpayers or 2) Ask voters to keep and spend the money on local services. Town Council must make this decision soon, and they want your input.

Please fill out the below questions and return to the front table at the open house or to Town Hall, 100 N. Wilcox St. Please write clearly.

Name: MARK LUCAROLA

Address: 1127 S MOUNTAIN RD - CASTLE ROCK, CO
80109

Email: [REDACTED]

How would you like the Town's $714,580 TABOR surplus used? Select an idea from this list by circling, or provide a new idea below.

- ☒ A: Town Council should provide Castle Rock water customers a one-time credit on their utility bill
- ☐ B: Town Council should issue checks to eligible Castle Rock taxpayers
- ☐ C: Voters should allow the Town to keep the money to help fund solutions for traffic problems and other transportation concerns
- ☐ D: Voters should allow the Town to keep the money to use for services like police and fire protection

Do you have another idea for how you would like the Town's TABOR surplus used? Please share that here.

Tell us what you think about the TABOR surplus We want to hear from you!

The Colorado Constitution's Taxpayers Bill of Rights has a provision that imposes revenue restrictions on the state and local governments, like Castle Rock. When revenues exceed TABOR limits in a year, as they did for Castle Rock in 2015, the Town has two choices: 1) Refund the money to taxpayers or 2) Ask voters to keep and spend the money on local services. Town Council must make this decision soon, and they want your input.

Please fill out the below questions and return to the front table at the open house or to Town Hall, 100 N. Wilcox St. Please write clearly.

Name: DON JONES

Address: 2906 MASTERS CLUB CIR

Email: _____

How would you like the Town's $714,580 TABOR surplus used? Select an idea from this list by circling, or provide a new idea below.

A: Town Council should provide Castle Rock water customers a one-time credit on their utility bill

B: Town Council should issue checks to eligible Castle Rock taxpayers

C: Voters should allow the Town to keep the money to help fund solutions for traffic problems and other transportation concerns

D: Voters should allow the Town to keep the money to use for services like police and fire protection

NOT enough to be meaningful

Do you have another idea for how you would like the Town's TABOR surplus used? Please share that here.

Keep it Simple

Tell us what you think about the TABOR surplus We want to hear from you!

The Colorado Constitution's Taxpayers Bill of Rights has a provision that imposes revenue restrictions on the state and local governments, like Castle Rock. When revenues exceed TABOR limits in a year, as they did for Castle Rock in 2015, the Town has two choices: 1) Refund the money to taxpayers or 2) Ask voters to keep and spend the money on local services. Town Council must make this decision soon, and they want your input.

Please fill out the below questions and return to the front table at the open house or to Town Hall, 100 N. Wilcox St. Please write clearly.

Name: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____

How would you like the Town's $714,580 TABOR surplus used? Select an idea from this list by circling, or provide a new idea below.

- A: Town Council should provide Castle Rock water customers a one-time credit on their utility bill
- B: Town Council should issue checks to eligible Castle Rock taxpayers
- ☒ C: Voters should allow the Town to keep the money to help fund solutions for traffic problems and other transportation concerns
- D: Voters should allow the Town to keep the money to use for services like police and fire protection

Do you have another idea for how you would like the Town's TABOR surplus used? Please share that here.

Tell us what you think about the TABOR surplus We want to hear from you!

The Colorado Constitution's Taxpayers Bill of Rights has a provision that imposes revenue restrictions on the state and local governments, like Castle Rock. When revenues exceed TABOR limits in a year, as they did for Castle Rock in 2015, the Town has two choices: 1) Refund the money to taxpayers or 2) Ask voters to keep and spend the money on local services. Town Council must make this decision soon, and they want your input.

Please fill out the below questions and return to the front table at the open house or to Town Hall, 100 N. Wilcox St. Please write clearly.

Name: 2 REED

Address: _____

Email: _____

How would you like the Town's $714,580 TABOR surplus used? Select an idea from this list by circling, or provide a new idea below.

- ☒ A: Town Council should provide Castle Rock water customers a one-time credit on their utility bill
- ☐ B: Town Council should issue checks to eligible Castle Rock taxpayers
- ☐ C: Voters should allow the Town to keep the money to help fund solutions for traffic problems and other transportation concerns
- ☐ D: Voters should allow the Town to keep the money to use for services like police and fire protection

Do you have another idea for how you would like the Town's TABOR surplus used? Please share that here.

Tell us what you think about the TABOR surplus We want to hear from you!

The Colorado Constitution's Taxpayers Bill of Rights has a provision that imposes revenue restrictions on the state and local governments, like Castle Rock. When revenues exceed TABOR limits in a year, as they did for Castle Rock in 2015, the Town has two choices: 1) Refund the money to taxpayers or 2) Ask voters to keep and spend the money on local services. Town Council must make this decision soon, and they want your input.

Please fill out the below questions and return to the front table at the open house or to Town Hall, 100 N. Wilcox St. Please write clearly.

Name: Al Upmsteden

Address: CR

Email: _____

How would you like the Town's $714,580 TABOR surplus used? Select an idea from this list by circling, or provide a new idea below.

A: Town Council should provide Castle Rock water customers a one-time credit on their utility bill

B: Town Council should issue checks to eligible Castle Rock taxpayers

☒ C: Voters should allow the Town to keep the money to help fund solutions for traffic problems and other transportation concerns

D: Voters should allow the Town to keep the money to use for services like police and fire protection

Do you have another idea for how you would like the Town's TABOR surplus used? Please share that here.

1/2 a Million should be spent on Public Transit

Tell us what you think about the TABOR surplus We want to hear from you!

The Colorado Constitution's Taxpayers Bill of Rights has a provision that imposes revenue restrictions on the state and local governments, like Castle Rock. When revenues exceed TABOR limits in a year, as they did for Castle Rock in 2015, the Town has two choices: 1) Refund the money to taxpayers or 2) Ask voters to keep and spend the money on local services. Town Council must make this decision soon, and they want your input.

Please fill out the below questions and return to the front table at the open house or to Town Hall, 100 N. Wilcox St. Please write clearly.

Name: Scott Hughes
Address: 4219 Opportunity Dr.
Email: [REDACTED]

How would you like the Town's $714,580 TABOR surplus used? Select an idea from this list by circling, or provide a new idea below.

- A: Town Council should provide Castle Rock water customers a one-time credit on their utility bill
- ☒ B: Town Council should issue checks to eligible Castle Rock taxpayers
- C: Voters should allow the Town to keep the money to help fund solutions for traffic problems and other transportation concerns
- D: Voters should allow the Town to keep the money to use for services like police and fire protection

Do you have another idea for how you would like the Town's TABOR surplus used? Please share that here.

TABOR was passed overwhelmingly to protect against big govt. & act of control spending.
Give the $ back to taxpayers.
Don't turn Castle Rock/CO into NY/CA, etc.

Tell us what you think about the TABOR surplus We want to hear from you!

The Colorado Constitution's Taxpayers Bill of Rights has a provision that imposes revenue restrictions on the state and local governments, like Castle Rock. When revenues exceed TABOR limits in a year, as they did for Castle Rock in 2015, the Town has two choices: 1) Refund the money to taxpayers or 2) Ask voters to keep and spend the money on local services. Town Council must make this decision soon, and they want your input.

Please fill out the below questions and return to the front table at the open house or to Town Hall, 100 N. Wilcox St. Please write clearly.

Name: Bew Williams

Address: 213 Cantril C.R.

Email: [REDACTED]

How would you like the Town's $714,580 TABOR surplus used? Select an idea from this list by circling, or provide a new idea below.

A: Town Council should provide Castle Rock water customers a one-time credit on their utility bill

B: Town Council should issue checks to eligible Castle Rock taxpayers

☒ C: Voters should allow the Town to keep the money to help fund solutions for traffic problems and other transportation concerns

D: Voters should allow the Town to keep the money to use for services like police and fire protection

Do you have another idea for how you would like the Town's TABOR surplus used? Please share that here.

OR to help fund education!!!

Tell us what you think about the TABOR surplus We want to hear from you!

The Colorado Constitution's Taxpayers Bill of Rights has a provision that imposes revenue restrictions on the state and local governments, like Castle Rock. When revenues exceed TABOR limits in a year, as they did for Castle Rock in 2015, the Town has two choices: 1) Refund the money to taxpayers or 2) Ask voters to keep and spend the money on local services. Town Council must make this decision soon, and they want your input.

Please fill out the below questions and return to the front table at the open house or to Town Hall, 100 N. Wilcox St. Please write clearly.

Name: Zach Dugan

Address: 590 Ash Drive

Email: [REDACTED]

How would you like the Town's $714,580 TABOR surplus used? Select an idea from this list by circling, or provide a new idea below.

A: Town Council should provide Castle Rock water customers a one-time credit on their utility bill

B: Town Council should issue checks to eligible Castle Rock taxpayers

☒ C: Voters should allow the Town to keep the money to help fund solutions for traffic problems and other transportation concerns

D: Voters should allow the Town to keep the money to use for services like police and fire protection

Do you have another idea for how you would like the Town's TABOR surplus used? Please share that here.

→ Not in the form of roads.
Reduce traffic by improving bike lanes,
bike sharing, pedestrian friendly areas
etc.