SPRING TIPS

With spring upon us, you may be considering repairing your roof, fixing your driveway, or having some landscaping done in order to be ready for the upcoming warm weather. However, it is likely that you are not the only person thinking about these home improvement projects. Did you know there are groups of con-artists that attempt to scam unsuspecting homeowners or business owners, offering to do work on properties for cash, work without a contract, or work for an “unbelievable” price?

Below are warning signs to be on the lookout for this type of scam:

- Going door-to-door and offering to work on your house or property due to working in the immediate area with leftover materials and/or spare time.
- Providing you with very little information about themselves or their business, e.g., no last name on a business card, no address of the company, or no available references.
- Not requiring a contract or written deal for their work.
- Pushing you to make a decision without providing you an estimate—if what they are offering you is “only available today,” it is likely a scam.
- Stating they are “cash only.”

Before hiring a contractor, remember to check the Better Business Bureau for any complaints the contractor may have received.

Remember to contact Castle Rock Police Department, if you feel you have been a victim of a crime.

VICTIMS ASSISTANCE (VA) UNIT

VA UNIT STATISTICS MARCH (2016-2018)

The VAU received several handcrafted quilts from the Perry Park Blanket Brigade. We also received over 40 large-sized felt blankets from an anonymous donor. We shared this generous donation with the Crisis Center and other VAUs in Douglas County. These donations allow the VAs to provide additional comfort when called to crime scenes or other misfortunate incidents.

In the Spotlight: VA Volunteer Cineca McDaniel is a native Texan who loves Colorado. She has owned her own company where she has been an international retail consultant working and traveling globally to work with corporations. She has been very active in coaching basketball, volleyball, and soccer for the Boy's and Girl's Club and volleyball at the Junior Olympic level. She believes in giving back to the community through volunteer work where she has been on the board of directors of the Texas School for the Deaf, chairwoman for the American Heart Association, and volunteered in the intensive care unit for the largest hospital in Texas. Her hobbies include riding motorcycles, riding horses, and cooking. She is currently finishing her Bachelor of Arts in Criminal Justice at West Texas A&M University.

Gifts from the Perry Park Blanket Brigade

In March, VAC Lewis and VA volunteers Hundley, Karol and Gorrell attended the Colorado Mammoth lacrosse game for the Fallen Officer fundraiser. It was a fun night, a great cause and a Mammoth victory!

Thank you, Officer Leach!

"I'm writing to say thank you to your department and specifically officer Leach. We had a brother blow a rear tire in a fairly precarious spot on Founders Parkway this morning. He was by himself and unable to move the bike out of the roadway. Officer Leach and his immediate supervisor [CPL Myers] blocked the lane of traffic and stood by until myself, some other brothers and a trailer arrived to get his bike. This took a bit of time, to which your officers were happy to stand by. They did exactly what I believe many officers in other jurisdictions forget that they are commissioned to do. Provided a service to a member of your community, kept him safe until help could arrive, and were extremely professional and courteous. I just wanted to be sure to let you and these two officers know that the Sober Souls Motorcycle Club, myself and my brothers appreciate their help and support today.

Personalized Cookies!

"One of Castle Rock's talented citizens brought in a personalized cookie for everyone in the department. She wanted to do something nice for all of us. She and her family baked and decorated them with individual badge/ID numbers. Thank you, Sharalyn, for the wonderful treat on March 8.
