

Art Encounters (AE) Public Art Advisory Committee Meeting
September 19, 2018

Present: Larry Perkins, Carrie Glassburn, Denise Zoglmann, Elizabeth Lamonina, Kristin Zagurski, Courtney Ozaki, Maia Aman, Becky Holm, Kim Smith

People's Choice Award - Voting:

- It was agreed that the Art Encounters voting would extend through the end of this year in hopes that people would see the pieces during the holidays and vote. Voting will conclude at 12 a.m. on December 31, 2018.
- Please encourage residents and visitors to continue voting through the end of the year.

Call for Entries Application:

- Everyone agreed that CAFÉ worked well this last year and should continue to be used for the 2019-2020 program year.
- The Call for Entries will take place from Wednesday, January 2, 2019 through Friday, February 15, 2019.
- Everyone will be given access to view the submittals beginning Feb. 20 and meet with their decision-making teams before we meet as a group on Wednesday, Feb. 27 at 11 a.m. for the selection process.

Best Practices, Comments and Ideas:

- No best practices were shared at this time.
- Reiterated comment: Jurisdictions may choose to include language within the contract, with the artist, that states that the sculpture becomes the property of the jurisdiction if it is not removed and picked up within a specific timeframe.
- Kudos were shared regarding this year's AE brochure. Courtney shared that she has received many positive comments from the Lone Tree Arts Commission.
- Larry was interested in the possibility of having a lecturer come and speak about the welding and installation of a sculpture.

Next Steps:

- Kim Smith will be in contact regarding the Call for Entries via email.
- The next meeting will be on Wednesday, Feb. 27 at 11 a.m. to select the sculptures for the 2019-2020 program year.
