PUBLIC ART COMMISSION

Artfest 2019

The Rock Paint-By-Number

Created by Stephanie Brueggemann

To increase understanding and raise awareness of public art, Castle Rock's Public Art Commission hosted a paint-by-number activity featuring the town's iconic namesake, the Rock. At 2019 Artfest, over 60 individuals of all ages helped to paint the painting featured here today. To continue the celebration of art and the spirit of community teamwork, Castle Rock Adventist Hospital has offered to display the piece so all can enjoy. Pick up a coloring sheet to make your own Paint-by-Number of the Rock at the hospital's front desk. The mission of the Castle Rock Public Art Commission is to bring distinctive public art to the community of Castle Rock and to serve as the stewards of the public art program. More information is available at CRgov.com/publicart.
