DISCUSSION ACTION ITEMS

HPB 2022-024 2023 Historic Preservation Month Planning (continued discussion)

Several Board members, as has Mr. Boland, have reached out to Historic Colorado for ideas on how to engage the youth in Douglas County. It was recommended to see what the school district teaches about the county's history and introduce topics during May. Councilmember LaFleur will reach out to the school district superintendent regarding the curriculum and to see if we can add literature to the libraries. She will also inquire about having the younger grades receive the 3D models to color and assemble and the possibility of programs for multi-media presentations including art, poetry, movement, etc. with the local history topic. The Board hopes to introduce the May Local History idea and have the school district and teachers develop it as they find appropriate. It was noted that second grade does have 'community' in the curriculum which lends itself to local history and fifth grade does do the history of Colorado. In the past, the Museum has hosted student groups but there have been issues with transportation. The History Douglas County is also working on getting a book accepted into the school libraries.

Angie DeLeo, museum representative, reported that the Scavenger Hunt with the clue sheet, walking tour and participation from local businesses is in the works. There are prizes, usually from the participating businesses for the winners. The museum's annual fundraiser, a tea with historic dignitaries, will occur in May, along with the trolley tour.

For National Historic Month, the Board is going to work with the Communications department on printing the historic activity placements for restaurants, creating posters (A-frame or sidewalk) for notable historic spots, and creating a poster for area businesses. They will also look into the idea of having historic lectures in the park.

Moved by Chair Beystehner, seconded by Vice Chair Lange, to approve $500 to the Castle Rock Museum for their National Historic Month efforts, and to reassess the budget in the future to potentially provide additional funding. The motion passed by
