Attachment D: Pictures of Heat Damage

The applicant, Rebecca Jorenby, did not have a presentation. The applicant's architect, Ron Marquette did approach the Board on behalf of the applicant. He answered questions from the Board and discussed the outdated right-of-way on Lewis Street, the applicant's drainage issues and other factors supporting the request for a variance. The Board discussed the findings of each of the six criteria considered in order to grant a variance.

PUBLIC COMMENT:

One neighbor spoke in support of the approval for the variance.

Board Member Ortega motioned to approve Rebecca Jorenby's request for approval of a variance from the minimum required front yard setback to construct a patio cover on a single-family residence in the R-2 zone based upon existing conditions, age of the home and 80' right-of-way. Board Member Jensen seconded the motion.

Passed: 4-1

Yes: 4 - Raasch, Bierman, Vice Chair Ortega, and Jensen

No: 1 - Chair Baumann

Attachment C: Elevation Plans

The applicant, Taylor Morrison-Denver, did not have a presentation. The Project Superintendent, Mark Brown, answered questions from the Board. The Board discussed the findings of each of the six criteria considered in order to grant a variance.

Board Member Raasch motioned to deny Taylor Morrison - Denver's request for approval of a variance from the maximum average building height on a single-family residence in the PD zone based on the required hardship has not been demonstrated. Board Member Ortega seconded the motion.

Failed: 5-0

No: 5 - Raasch, Chair Baumann, Bierman, Vice Chair Ortega, and Jensen

BOARD MEMBER ITEMS

Board Member Ortega asked for clarification on the excessive ROW on Lewis Street; can the Board of Adjustment propose changes on that minimum requirement. Ms. King informed the Board that the topic will be proposed to the Historic Preservation Board that presides over the Craig and Gould neighborhood.

Board Member Ortega also mentioned that he would like to see changes in the way measurements are taken on height requirements. Ms. King mentioned that these Municipal Codes were written in 1988 and she is currently working on several code updates.

ITEMS FROM STAFF

Ms. King gave the following update to the Board:

1 - The second reading of the Group Home Ordinance will held at Town Council on Tuesday, Aug. 21st

ADJOURN

Chair Baumann adjourned the meeting at 7:27 pm.
