A message from Chief of Police Jack Cauley

Castle Rock continues to be one of the safest and fastest-growing communities in the country. To achieve this, we build upon our One-By-One Policing philosophy through our three strategic pillars:

People: We invest in our team members by providing quality training and the best equipment available. We are laser-focused on creating a healthy organizational culture where our members can thrive.

Innovation: The ability to innovate is key. We embrace the latest technology and best practices to solve problems and address crime.

Community: Policing is a team effort. Creating safe communities must involve trust and partnerships. We are grateful for Castle Rock's support and don't take it for granted.

Castle Rock Police Celebrate Colorado and America with Commemorative Badges

Castle Rock officers stepped out in the month of March wearing something new on their uniforms—a badge unlike any before. In recognition of the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence and the 150th anniversary of Colorado's statehood, members of the Castle Rock Police Department chose to purchase commemorative badges of their own to honor these historic milestones. Each badge serves as a tribute to the history and enduring heritage that continue to shape our community.

The badge serves as a unifying symbol for the department, connecting present-day service with the enduring principles that define both the nation and the state. It reflects a shared commitment to uphold the ideals of liberty, responsibility, and community that have guided generations before.

Worn with pride, it reinforces the idea that the policing profession is not only about maintaining order, but also about preserving the legacy of freedom and progress that shapes Castle Rock.
