IACP Trust Building Campaign Recognition

"...our team members have earned the trust of the Castle Rock community and gained recognition from IACP. I'm incredibly proud of the work we have put in"

- Chief
Jack Cauley

The Castle Rock Police Department has reached an exciting new milestone! We are now among a distinguished group of agencies across the U.S. and world recognized for successfully completing the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) Trust Building Campaign. To achieve this recognition, CRPD demonstrated our commitment to six key focus areas, encompassing 25 essential policies and practices.

- Bias-Free Policing
- Use of Force
- Leadership and Culture
- Recruitment, Hiring, and Retention
- Victim Services
- Community Relations

CRPD is one of seven agencies in the state of Colorado who has taken this pledge, which once again shows our innovative spirit and commitment to excellence.

Castle Rock Police Department

VISION: To serve people one-by-one so together, we can create environments that are safe and secure, and where people can thrive.

MISSION: The Castle Rock Police Department is dedicated to excellence through community safety, innovation, and public trust. Our goal is to provide for the safety and welfare of both the citizens and visitors of the Town of Castle Rock utilizing effective community-policing philosophies, including crime prevention, traffic enforcement, criminal investigation, crime analysis and community involvement.

Customer survey results

CRPD utilizes a survey tool which measures customer service on select non-violent or property crime calls for service. Citizens receive a short text survey and may also leave comments. Results are listed in the graph below.

Domestic violence lethality assessment

The Lethality Assessment Program (LAP) tool is designed to reduce risks, save lives and involves an assessment by policing personnel to determine risks in collaboration with community-based victim service providers. More information can be found at LethalityAssessmentProgram.org.
